40-Day Challenge

Week 0: Man in the Arena

Simple Tuesday Devotional:

Greetings in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ- Amen

I am so excited to have you along with me on this journey over this 40-Day Challenge. I am reminded as we begin our journey of a quote from Theodore Roosevelt called “The Man in the Arena”

“It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who neither know victory nor defeat.”

I bring this quote up at the start for our 40-Day Challenge, because there will be days of success, there will be other days of struggle and possible failure. As the Apostle Paul reminds us in Romans 7:19-20 For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. This is why we follow Step 1 to fast, it is good outwardly bodily training because of the sin that dwells in us. This is why next week, we begin our Week 1 of S.A.I.N.T.S. in understanding that sin has caused all sorts of evil within us. Even Jesus- pre-incarnate warned Cain that “if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is contrary to you, but you must rule over it” (Gen 4:7b) This is why we look to Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith who is the Atonement of our sins, and who intercedes for us before the Father. It's all about Jesus, these 40 days are all about Jesus.

But the “arena” is the world we live in. Our faces are marred by dust and sweat and blood because we are in a war over sin, death, and the devil. We battle the temptations of our flesh, and what the world has to offer. There will be days of error and shortcoming. There will be days of success and triumph of high achievement. But know, as you are in this arena, Jesus himself is beside you, He has given you the success to overcome, He has granted you His Holy Spirit to endure. The Holy Spirit has called you to this challenge, enjoy it for you are not alone.

As a reminder: Please live by Rule 1, and don't forget it "Let the Grace of God rule in your hearts." If you get behind, please don't feel like you need to catch up. Get back on the horse as they say, press on, and strive valiantly.
